We Stand Strong on Ethical Ground

Some people believe that ethics in business is a contradiction in terms. They think that in order to be profitable, a company and its leaders must abandon morality and embrace the dark, greedy side of capitalism. At the Knights of Columbus, we know this business model is incorrect. As a Catholic organization, we understand the value and importance of our core beliefs and the original mission of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney. In fact, much of the strength and financial security we provide to members and their families can be attributed to our ethical, moral standards.

More than 96 percent of Knights who buy our life insurance keep it, year in and year out. The Order takes this commitment to our members very highly. This means carefully planning when it comes time to invest. Our professional staff researches all transactions to insure that they fall in line with Catholic values. We exclude any company engaged in activity that conflicts with Catholic moral teaching: companies directly involved in abortion, contraception, human cloning, embryonic stem cell research, for-profit health care that pays for any of these, or pornography. There are many companies in the pharmaceutical and communications industries that would undoubtedly provide excellent returns for us, but which are not in our portfolio because they engage in research and development or programming in ways that violate the sanctity or dignity of human life.

In the end, the Knights of Columbus investment strategy is motivated by morality and not money-making. Yet, each year we remain profitable, increase our assets, and stay dedicated to this vision that will keep the Order financially sound for generations to come. Faithful Catholics have choices when buying life insurance. But they know that at the Knights of Columbus, their policy is supplied by an insurer that shares their moral and ethical values and is guided in all of its investment and sales practices by those values.

Family Project

Discuss with your family the importance of Christ's words: "For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (MT 18:20). As a family, reach out and invite another family member or someone who may be alone to join your family for Mass, a social event or another activity.

Scripture Reading of the Month

Psalm 8: 2-6, 10

A praise to the Divine Majesty reflected in each human person

O Lord, our Lord, How awesome is your name through all the earth! I will sing of your majesty above the heavens with the mouths of babes and infants. You have established a bulwark against your foes, to silence enemy and avenger. When I see your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and stars that you set in place- What is man that you are mindful of him, and a son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him little less than a god, crowned him with glory and honor, O Lord, our Lord, how awesome is your name through all the earth!

Grand Knight Report August 2016

Because no one should be isolated, remember that our parish and communities are a larger family in which we must share our love and service.

As faithful Catholic, we have an obligation to be good citizens in our larger communities. Our responsibility to service others come from the Lord, who has called us to love our neighbor. When we follow this call, our society becomes a better place as a result of our concern for our neighbors. We must show the world that it is love that motivates us to help and protect people in need.

Meditation

From St. John Paul II's Familiaris Consortio

Among the fundamental tasks of the Christian family is its ecclesial task: the family is placed at the service of the building up of the Kingdom of God in history by participating in the life and mission of the Church. ... It is, above all, the Church as Mother that gives birth to, educates and builds up the Christian family, by putting into effect in its regard the saving mission which she has received from her Lord. By proclaiming the word of God, the Church reveals to the Christian family its true identity, what it is and should be according to the Lord's plan; by celebrating the sacraments, the Church enriches and strengthens the Christian family with the grace of Christ for its sanctification to the glory of the Father; by the continuous proclamation of the new commandment of love, the Church encourage and guides the Christian family to the service of love, so that it may imitate and relive the same self-giving and sacrificial love the Lord Jesus has for the human race.

1. How has the parish enriched your family through its activities, various services, and the great gifts of the sacraments?
2. How can your family take advantage of what is offered in the Church, opening ourselves more fully to the grace it provides?
3. How can your family become more involved in the parish, as a way of returning a small amount of love to these parishes that bring us so much grace through the sacraments?

Brothers please welcome our two new Brother Knights Seminarian Carlos Encinas and Marco- Venz Jean Louis.

Father McGiviney, Pray for us!

Vivat Jesus,

James Vanderhorst GK.
