Only having "through work" insurance doesn't work

Do you know anyone whose life has been drastically changed by the recent recession and economic downturn? With unemployment continuing to be a problem, it's very likely that someone in your immediate or extended family or group of friends is facing financial uncertainty now. With this uncertainty, there is a real possibility that you (or your wife) could lose your job or change employers. Too many people have relied on group insurance as their only safety net. Often, this insurance is an employee benefit provided at low or no cost. The existence of this coverage might convince someone that a personally owned insurance policy is not necessary.

Only having "through work" insurance doesn't work. This way of thinking should be a thing of the past for many reasons. Most forms of group insurance are limited in amount, which may be tied to salary or some other benchmark. These numbers are often capped, and this cap may be dangerously low for your family's actual needs. In fact, without a detailed needs analysis, any employer-provided coverage may be completely unrelated to your particular needs.

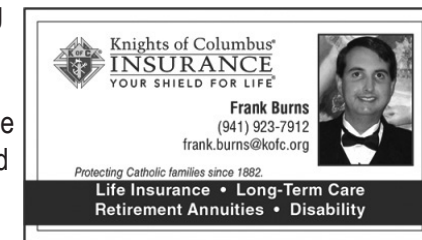

It can also disappear at any time. All of us know people — friends, family members, neighbors — who have lost their jobs. When the job is lost, so is the group insurance coverage. If the company experiences difficulty and budgets need to be cut, group benefits can be reduced or eliminated. And that decision could be made at the worst possible time for you.

Most group insurance coverage reduces dramatically or disappears entirely when you retire. Just because you turn 65 doesn't mean you no longer need insurance or need less coverage. Actually, the opposite is true. With the possibility of these changes on the horizon, you could one day find yourself without coverage, and if your health has changed (which it has and will as you age), you might also find yourself unable to secure individual protection.

While group insurance can help, it does not replace the need for individually owned insurance. I'll be happy to meet with you and provide a no-cost needs analysis, so you'll know exactly where you stand.

You can reach me at (941) 923-7912 or via E-mail at Frank.Burns@kofc.org.

District Deputy News

Brothers,
How would you like a medallion with the image of Pope Francis commemorating his visit to the United States in September? You cannot buy it. You cannot win it. The only way you can receive it is to sponsor a new member between now and September 31st. Don't miss out on this once in a lifetime opportunity. Ask a Catholic man to join the order today. We have a 1st degree scheduled for September 17th. (Others can be scheduled if needed) However you have to give your admissions committee time to interview the candidate and he must be read at a business meeting. Ask someone today.

What better way to celebrate Pope Francis' visit to the United States than to have a retreat for your council. Fortunately St Joseph Council has a retreat already planned for October 3rd. The retreat will be conducted by Rev. Paul D'Angelo the chaplain of St Joseph Council. The theme will be "In the footsteps of St. Peter" a wonderful subject for the Knights. St. Peter a flawed man who through the grace of God, grew in his faith to lead our great Catholic Church. The retreat will be held between 9am and 3pm at the ministry center at St Joseph Church. The cost is only $10 and lunch will be provided. You can respond to Charlie Mucciarone at 746-8482 or mouch212@verizon.net. Form a group from you council at your next meeting.

It is close to the end of the first quarter on our Fraternal Year. Have you been active in at least one of your council's programs? If not it is time to step up. What better way to show the Parish Community and your neighbors the great work of the Knights of Columbus. What better way to show another Catholic man what we do as Knights.
