Grand Knight Report of January:

First as a council, we have a GREAT council this year. I want to thank the council for a wonderful year. I want to thank all of you for stepping up and taking an active role in your council and helping with events and meetings. Keep up the hard work you do for your council in the front line and behind the scenes.

As of December 31, our Recorder Andy Minor will be stepping down. Thank you, Andy, for your dedication to this council over the past years. If any brother Knight would like to be the Recorder, please let me know. We do have a recording device to record the minutes of the meeting.

We have 3 candidates waiting to take their Exemplification of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity. Our next one will be on Tuesday, January 11, 2022, at Holy Cross Council in Palmetto at 7:00 pm in the Holy Cross Council Chambers. This is a great time for any First or Second-Degree Member to become a full Council member. These degrees are open to wives or family members that would like to attend. We are at 40% of our membership goal for the year. Brothers, great job on bringing new Catholic gentlemen into our council.

My Wife Ruth Anne and I wish each of you and family a blessed and safe 2022 New

Year. And we should keep all Brother Knights and their families in our prayers.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us!
